

LOCAL WILDFIRE RESPONSE

Cliff Creek Wildfire, 2016

First year after the fire

Most wildlife benefit from high quality forage after a wildfire, such as wild hollyhock

Fontenelle Wildfire, 2012

Year of the Fire

2 Years After the Fire

5 Years After the Fire

Wide variety of wildflowers and grass naturally re-establish after a wildfire

Conifers begin to grow from seed the first year after wildfire

Horse Creek Wildfire, 2007

First year after the fire

5 Years After the Fire

10 Years After the Fire

Riparian areas with rapidly re-sprouting sedges and willows heal quickly when sediment fills in from up drainage